

March y^e 24.th 1745

24 March
The Fleet at This²⁴ Saild From King Rhode upon y^e Expedition against Louis bourge

June
25

I wou'd now make Some Remarks upon y^e Remarkable Providences in Favour of y^e grate Design y^t we ware upon: 1 I wou'd Consider in a Few words y^e Scheem y^t was Laid in Boston; y^t was to hasten away as Fast as Possible (with
But 4 or 5 Vessels of Force & they
But Small; we had Some hopes of Commodore Warren But y^t was very uncertin) To Canso & wait no longer then To have all y^e Transports Come Togathar; & To Take y^e First
Fair wind & Sail to Chabarough Bay; Landing y^e Evening with our whole army & To Take our Ladders axes Crows graplins & other Things needful in order To git over y^e wals; all in one night; this Since we know To be Imprecticable

First Re
mark

Although there was about 80 Sail of Vessels; Yet They all arived Safe at Canso not one Lost; & in good health; we lay at Canso about 3 weeks

2^{dy}
[secondly]

our Lying there So Long we Thought To be against us But Since See To y^e Contrary; For in this Time our Cruzers Took 7 or 8 Vessels From y^e Franch

March y^e 24th 1745
The Fleet at This²⁴ Saild From
King Rhode upon y^e Expedition against ~~King~~ Louis bourge
June
25
I wou'd now make Some Remarks
upon y^e Remarkable Providences
in Favour of y^e grate Design
y^t we ware upon: 1 I wou'd Consider
in a Few words y^e Scheem y^t was Laid in Boston; y^t was to hasten
away as Fast as Possible (with
But 4 or 5 Vessels of Force & they
But Small; we had Some hopes of
Commodore Warren But y^t was very
uncertin) To Canso & wait no longer then To have all y^e Transports
Come Togathar; & To Take y^e First
Fair wind & Sail to Chabarough
Bay; Landing y^e Evening with our
whole army & To Take our Ladders
axes Crows graplins & other Things
needful in order To git over y^e
wals; all in one night; this Since
we know To be Imprecticable Although there was about 80
of Vessels; yet They all arived Safe
at Canso not one Lost; & in good
health; we lay at Canso about 3 weeks
our Lying there So long we thought to
be against us But since See to y^e Contrary; For in this Time our Cruzers Took
7 or 8 Vessels from y^e Franch